

Universal Automation Center: Modern Workload Automation that Delivers

Modern, innovative, enterprise workload automation that delivers business-initiated processing capabilities.

The capabilities of Universal Automation Center can be managed using a 100% Web 2.0-based interface, where you can automate these tasks into the cohesive workflow you've imagined.

Imagine a modern, efficient automation solution to drive immediate business processing, manageable from any web-enabled device. Universal Automation Center will allow you to automate your 21st century business processing, securely manage file transfers or extend a legacy scheduling solution throughout the enterprise. With the use of this modern technology, it is now possible to achieve a more intelligent, yet simple, automation solution.

Whether your automation needs are simple or quite complex and cumbersome, the capabilities of Universal Automation Center can be managed using a 100% Web 2.0-based interface, where you can automate these tasks into the cohesive workflow you've imagined. Enterprise-level businesses can now give the entire IT organization and the business users complete system transparency, as well as operational control and insight:

- Reduce Outages
- Ensure Compliance
- Ease Troubleshooting

Universal Automation Center consists of:

- Universal Controller
- Universal Agent (use with any scheduling engine)
- Universal Data Mover

